Mr. Maldoven,

On behalf of Qualitas Solutions I would like to thank you for your work and effort in providing us with quality security badges. I appreciate the time you took in designing our badges and ensuring that all the information was accurate. Security badges seem like such a small item, but in today's new atmosphere of security they really do make an impact.

The badges you created for us have provided a new level of professionalism to our consultants and representatives. It is very important in today's environment for companies to feel comfortable and secure with who is in their office. Secure Image's badges help us to easily identify our consultants when they are on the job. This helps assure the client that only the appropriate people are in their office.

Another advantage to the security badges is advertising. When else do you get to wear a walking billboard wherever you go? The great colors and professional look of the badges say a lot about your company. Our employees have been stopped several times with people asking where the badges were made. They definitely make a difference.

That only leaves one question why Secure Image Corporation? One word service. Mr. Maldoven goes the extra mile to ensure that the badges are accurate, the design is appropriate, and all your goals are achieved. He does what it takes to make sure your satisfied. Since that is the way we run our business at Qualitas Solutions we strongly recommend using Secure Image Corp. for all your security image needs.

Sincerely,

Matthew Lucas, CEO
